DRAMA WORKSHOPS

These engaging and high energy drama workshops are available over Zoom or in person, depending on your schools requirements. Adaptable to any Key Stage, we can deliver workshops as one off sessions or as part of a five week project.

Each session will focus on one key theme, chosen by the school if a one-off workshop. Sessions are delivered by Emily Cook, a drama practitioner with over a decade of drama teaching experience and an MA in Theatre. Sessions can be delivered to individual students on Zoom, or into a classroom via video call.

Testimonials & Contact

"Emily taught a lesson for me as a special guest. Emily was fun, entertaining, engaging and super relaxed with the children. She was so good at making sure everyone was engaged and actively involved. I would recommend her and her lessons if you have children who need to gain some confidence or need some excitement and drama skills. "

Faith J - Drama Teacher, Port Elizabeth, SA.

"Absolutely loved working with Emily , her passion for drama shines out of her like the little stars she makes the children into. A true professional but also a great friend to not only staff but the children too. I'm so pleased I met this fantastic lady."
